VERBS

Ser or Estar

Let's review the differences between "ser" (to be) and "estar" (to be).

Ser is used...

- To describe a permanent quality
- To tell the time or date
- To tell place of origin
- To tell nationality
- To show possession

Estar is used...

- To describe location
- To describe a temporary condition
- To describe a temporary feeling

Practice using "ser" or "estar" in the following sentences.

Ben	_cansado.	Ellos	amables.
Ben is tired.		They are nice.
Túinte	resante.	Ella	_mi madre.
You are interesting.		She is my mom.
Sara	felíz.	Mi abuela	en la recamara.
Sara is happy.		My grandmother is in	the bedroom.
Los lápices	míos.	Maria y Juan
The pencils are mine.		Maria and Juan are in	the stadium.
Nosotros	mojados.	Bela	_caniñosa.
We are wet.		Bela is sweet.
Susana	alta.	Tomás	nadando.
Susana is tall.		Thomas is swimming.
Yod	e Chile.	Tú
I am from Chile.		You are in the library.

